   a. Cheating
   b. Dishonest Conduct
   c. Plagiarism
   d. Collusion
   e. Confusion

2. If I am unable to complete an assignment, the best course of action for me would be: (1 point)
   a. Ask the instructors for an extension (since they’ll probably grant me one).
   b. Turn in what I manage to finish on time (or within 2 days late) and then hope for the best.
   c. Turn in someone else’s solution as my own and hope I don’t get caught.

3. If I am found to be Cheating in this class, the consequence will be: (1 point)
   a. A disappointed look from the instructor.
   b. A warning letter in my academic history file.
   c. Having to repeat the assignment and resubmit it.
   d. A zero for the assignment or exam on which I cheated.
   e. A failing grade in the class.
   f. Immediate expulsion from UCI.

4. A lesser Cheating penalty will be applied if (circle any/all that apply): (1 point)
   a. This is my first offense.
   b. I seem to be truly repentant
   c. The full penalty would dangerously drag my GPA down.
   d. The full penalty would delay my graduation.
   e. The full penalty could cause me to lose a job I have lined up.
   f. The full penalty could impact my visa status (if applicable).
   g. It just didn’t occur to me that I might get caught.
   h. The implications of the full penalty just hadn’t sunk in.
5. If my circumstances make the full penalty for Cheating too damaging for me, then I should: (1 point)
   a. Be extra careful not to get caught.
   b. Not Cheat (“if you can’t do the time, don’t commit the crime”).

6. Talking with classmates/friends about how to approach a problem, or the merits of various alternative approaches, would be considered cheating. (1 point)
   a. True
   b. False

7. Turning in a classmate’s or friend’s or other prior solution to part or all of an assignment as my own work would be considered cheating. (1 point)
   a. True
   b. False

8. I understand that UCI has an official Academic Honesty Policy (which I am responsible for knowing) and how it will be applied in CS122A this term. (1 point)
   a. True
   b. False

9. I acknowledge having taken this quiz and having received its (unfortunately necessary) message. (2 points)
